Heard.

Admittedly, the Society to which membership was claimed has gone under liquidation. In this view of the matter, the relief claimed in the petition has become infructuous. However, it is stated by the learned counsel for the petitioners that the petitioners who are below the poverty line are entitled to allotment of land and other benefits. If that be so, it is for the petitioners to approach the appropriate authority under the relevant provisions for seeking relief. The claim for allotment and other benefits cannot be considered by this Court in these proceedings but in case such application is moved, the same shall be considered and disposed of on their own merits, in accordance with relevant provisions.

With the aforesaid observation/direction, the petition stands disposed of as infructuous. Consequently, I.A.Nos.1716/02, 1716-A/02, 6674/02, 1762/02 and 4685/02 also stand disposed of.
